

JAMIE BELL

SUMMARY

Award-winning editor with a passion for storytelling and collaboration.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Film and Media Production Department, Taylor University Engineering Assistant (Fall 2016 - Spring 2017)

- Maintained department equipment
- Assisted head engineer with department projects

Heidi Burkey Films, Los Angeles, CA Intern (Spring 2016)

- Assisted with development and pre-production for short and feature documentaries
- Edited promotional piece for short documentary series
- Transcribed interviews for use in short and feature documentaries

Justin Bell Productions, Los Angeles, CA Intern (Spring 2016)

- Handled organizational and pre-production tasks
- Acted as a production assistant on the set of client and commercial projects

When the Game Changes*, Taylor University Editor (Fall 2015)

- Edited award-winning documentary about athlete Brad Hurtig
- Researched and obtained stock footage, archival footage, and music
- Managed and organized digital assets

AWARDS

When the Game Changes*, Editor

- Outstanding Student Production, National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, Lower Great Lakes Chapter
- Best Video Documentary/Public Affairs, National Student Production Award, College Broadcasters Inc.
- Gold Crown Award, Best Student Production, International Christian Visual Media Awards
- Best Documentary, Envision Film Festival
- Nominated: Best Documentary, Revolution Film Festival
- Official Selection: Imago Film Festival, The Colony Short Film Festival, Northam Film and Music Festival, Hoosierdance Film Festival, Indiana Short Film Festival

Spiral*, Producer/Director/Editor

- Official Selection: Toronto Film Week

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, Film and Media Production, Honors Guild minor

- Taylor University, Upland, IN
- May 2017, Magna Cum Laude

SKILLS

- Adobe CC (Premiere, After Effects, InDesign, Photoshop)
- Avid Media Composer
- DaVinci Resolve
- HTML/CSS
- Experience with Steadicam® Shadow, Pilot, and Archer 2 rigs